

Caspheim United Presbyterian
Church Bible Class
Syllabus, 1898-1899.

Christian Character.

1. The Nature & Importance of Christian Character

I. The Source of Christian Character.

2. Christ as Moral Teacher.
3. Christ as Example.
4. Christ as Redeemer.
 - (a) The Need of Man.
 - (b) The Work of Christ.

II. The Discipline of Christian Character.

5. The Beginning of the New Life.
6. The Training of the New Life.
 7. (a) Through Temptation.
 8. (b) Through Suffering
 9. (c) Through Work. over.

III The Culture of Christian Character

- 9 The Body - Physical Culture & Character
10 Bodily Sins
11 The Care of the Body.
12 The Mind - Duty of mental Culture.
13 Training of mental Faculties.
14 The use of Books.
15 The Conscience. Its nature.
16 Its Relations to the individual.
17 Its Relation to Public Life.
18 The Will Its Freedom
19 Its Training.
20 Concluding Address

Literature. "Christian Character," by Rev. T. A. Kilpatrick. "Life & Conduct," by Dr. Cameron Lee. "From Slavery to Strength" by J. H. Jowett M. D.