

Carsphairn United Presbyterian Church Bible Class Syllabus 1898-1899

Christian Character

1 The Nature and importance of Christian Character

I. The source of Christian Character

2 Christ as Moral Teacher

3 Christ as Example

4 Christ as Redeemer

(a) The need of man

(b) The work of Christ

II The Discipline of Christian Character

5 The beginning of the New Life

6 The Training of the New Life

7 (a) Through Temptation

8 (b) Through Suffering

9 (c) Through Work

111 The Culture of Christian Character

9 The Body – Physical Culture and Character

10 Bodily Sins

11 The Care of the Body

12 The Mind – Duty of Mental Culture

13 Training of Mental Faculties

14 The use of Books

15 The Conscience. It's Nature

16 It's Relations to the Individual

17 The Relation to Public Life

18 The Will It's Freedom

19 It's Training

20 Concluding Address

Literature “Christian Character “ by Rev. T B Kilpatrick. “Life and Conduct”,by Dr. Cameron Lees. “From Strength to Strength”by J.H. Jowett M.A.